WHY THE REFORMATION STILL MATTERS! SAVE THIS DATE IN YOUR DIARIES! ^[1]

This Lecture being given by Mark Thompson, Principal of Moore College in Sydney, will be on the subject: 'Why the Reformation Still Matters' for this year's William Orange Memorial Lecture.

Presented by the Latimer Fellowship of NZ, this Lecture will be held on:

Sunday the 20th of August at 2:30pm

St Margaret's Anglican Church, Hillsborough, Auckland

Mark has been Principal of Moore College since May 2013. He has been teaching Doctrine there since 1991, and is Head of the Theology, Philosophy and Ethics Department. His research interests include the Doctrines of Scripture, Christ, and justification by faith, as well as Martin Luther and the Reformation.

Mark is married to Kathryn and they have four daughters. AFFIRM are delighted to be able to promote this lecture - we hope you can make it!
